SSi CONSULTING AWARDED MICROSOFT MID-ATLANTIC PARTNER OF THE YEAR

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND (August 5, 2008)—SSi Consulting, a business management software consulting firm in the Mid-Atlantic region, recently received the 2008 Microsoft Mid-Atlantic Partner of the Year. This award is given to a partner who has exemplified overall ‘best in class’ characteristics tied to sales and marketing achievement, client satisfaction and loyalty. This recognition honors the extraordinary contribution of partners serving small and mid-market customers.

“Microsoft congratulates SSi Consulting on achieving 2008 Microsoft Mid-Atlantic SMS&P Partner of the Year,” said David Willis, Vice President for Microsoft’s Small and Mid-Market Solutions and Partners in the East Region. “We recognize them for their tenacity to drive sales and collaborate within the region to keep businesses thriving. The success achieved by SSi Consulting demonstrates their ability to deliver innovative products and solutions to local customers.”

“We are honored to receive this impressive accolade. It is a tribute to our dedication to growing our business and the commitment we have to our clients,” said President, Bill Aiton. “With 25 years in business, our firm is constantly looking for ways to better serve clients and use technology to help solve business problems. Microsoft helps us to better serve our customers and we are very appreciative our team was recognized in this way.”
