SSI Consulting Named to VAR 100 List for 2008

SSI Ranked #61 on Prestigious List

Baltimore, MD — SSI Consulting is pleased to announce that they have been named to Accounting Technologies' annual VAR 100 List for 2008. This list represents the top 100 Value-Added Resellers (VAR) in the country. Companies that were picked for inclusion in the VAR 100 list sold mid-level accounting software packages and were selected based on their 2007 results.

Bill Aiton, President of SSI Consulting, stated, "SSI has helped organizations select and implement Microsoft accounting solutions for 26 years. We are happy to be among the top 100 Value Added Resellers once again. We couldn't be successful without a strong team of technical accountants and support members. Our clients are some of our best referral sources and we look forward to strong growth in the mid-Atlantic region."

Accounting Technology keeps tax and accounting professionals informed of the latest products and trends so that they can use technology to improve their business practices and their bottom lines. It guides readers through the latest developments in "sell-to" products, the traditional applications such as tax preparation, write-up and practice management, that are sold by tax and accounting professionals and the "sell-through" products, which firms recommend, install or sell. It's not just about technology products.

SSI Consulting, Microsoft's Mid-Atlantic Partner of the Year, is the premier provider of Financial Management Software and Consulting Services in the Mid-Atlantic Region. Founded in 1983, SSI Consulting has helped over 300 companies implement accounting and ERP solutions in PA, MD, VA and DC. With offices in Columbia, MD and McLean, VA, their 15 employees offer software selection services as well as installation, training, design and on-going support. SSI Consulting offers accounting software for all businesses with concentrations in Government Contractor, Professional Services and Not-for-Profits.
